1. Applicant's election of group IV, claims 9-11 in the reply filed on 1-20-2006 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).
2. Claims 1-8 and 12-16 remain withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 1-20-2006.
3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
4. Claims 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The preamble of claim 9 refers to an "apparatus for building a tread belt reinforcing assembly" whereas the body of claim 9 only describes a building drum with rotating drive means with a weight sensor attached to the shaft/drive. As such, a reference such as Jackson et al. (US 4,341,119) has been applied against the claims as this reference is considered to suggest sufficient structure to satisfy the body of the claim although it is clearly not directed to building a tread belt reinforcing assembly and would have little applicability thereto. It therefore is still not entirely clear that the scope of protection afforded by this claim can be readily ascertained - in other words, it is not clear if this claim is limited to simply a rotating building drum with a weight sensor or also includes sufficient structure to build a tread belt reinforcing assembly. Clarification is required - if it is the latter, it would be clearer if for example the claim were recast in Jepson form (In an apparatus..., the improvement comprising...). If the former, then confirmation of this would also be helpful to avoid any potential confusion in this regard.

5. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jackson et al. (US 4,341,119).

This reference is applied for substantially the same reasons as set forth in the last office action (although the last office action referred to claim 10, it is considered clear that this was a typographical error and should have stated claim 9). As to the new claim language, Jackson et al. clearly disclose a drive means (16/18/pulleys/etc.) for driving what is considered a drum-supporting shaft 13 in rotation. Further, the weight sensor is in supporting relationship with and therefore is considered to be "connected to" the drum shaft as well as part of the means for driving the drum (e.g. the pulley on the end of the shaft). This is considered to satisfy the claims since, in light of the present disclosure, it is apparent that the reference to "drive means" as now claimed is inclusive of only part of the actual rotation drive as it seems that the entire drive means (e.g. motor 117/gears 118/chain 119) as described in the present specification is not what is being referred to as the connected drive means.

6. Applicant's arguments filed 1-20-2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's arguments pertain to the new claim language and have been addressed within the statements of rejection above.

Art Unit: 1733

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

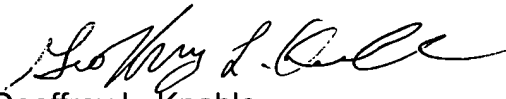

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
